Liverpool-based Bonk! is making a splash across the UK, captivating audiences with electrifying performances and selling out venues across the North-West. Our unique fusion of funky psychedelic jazz-rock results in eclectic tunes and high energy performances, likened to King Gizzard and The Lizard Wizard, Black MIDI, RHCP and Psychedelic Porn Crumpets.

Beyond our musical creations, Bonk! is a multifaceted force that understands the needs of our dedicated fanbase and the nature of the music industry. We've created our own website, video game, merchandise, and social media content to promote Bonk! in an authentic, personable and creative way.

We currently have 6 tracks recorded with prolific producer Jim Spencer that are awaiting mixing, with a view to release them as singles over the course of 2025. We're looking to work with a label that resonates with our vision and ethos in order to take the next step in our career.

Our debut EP The Act of Doing It released earlier this year, and has been praised by magazines and radio DJs internationally. The following self-managed UK tour featured 20 shows in 16 cities over the course of 6 months including festivals and high-profile support slots.
